Under the Service Occupation Tax Act, servicemen are taxed on tangible personal property transferred incident to sales of service. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 140.101. (This is a GIL.)

July 10, 2003

Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter received March 6, 2003. The nature of your letter and the information you have provided require that we respond with a General Information Letter, which is designed to provide general information, is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120(b) and (c), which can be found on the Department's website at www.revenue.state.il.us/Laws/regs/part1200/.

In your letter, you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

Back in September of 2000 I was informed that the Illinois State tax on printed catalogs from an out of state printer was the responsibility of the printer to collect the tax. I was also told at that time from the Illinois Department of Revenue that this type of tax is not considered a Use Taxable item. My current printer, said they just went through an audit and are no longer going to be collecting tax in Illinois. I have enclosed two copies of their invoice, one showing the number of catalogs shipped to Illinois and the tax and the other is their revised invoice eliminating the tax.

Please advise if this is a Use Taxable item?

For your information, we have enclosed a copy of 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.2000, which is the regulation for "Persons Engaged in the Printing, Graphic Arts or Related Occupations, and Their Suppliers." As a general rule, when products are items of general utility and serve substantially the same function as stock or standard items, the products will be subject to the Retailers' Occupation Tax when sold. Items which serve substantially the same function are those which, when produced on special order, could be sold as produced to someone other than the original purchaser at substantially the same price.

Items that would not be considered stock or standard items and would not be sold to someone other than the purchaser for substantially the same price would not be subject to the Retailers' Occupation Tax when sold, but would be subject to the Service Occupation Tax. Special order or custom print items are generally not considered stock or standard items and are generally not sold to someone other than the purchaser for substantially the same price. Therefore special order or custom print items are generally subject to the Service Occupation Tax.

Under the Service Occupation Tax Act, servicemen are taxed on tangible personal property transferred incident to sales of service. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 140.101. The purchase of tangible personal property that is transferred to service customers may result in either Service Occupation Tax liability or Use Tax liability for the servicemen, depending upon which tax base the servicemen choose to calculate their liability. Servicemen may calculate their tax base in one of four ways: (1) separately stated selling price; (2) 50% of the entire bill; (3) Service Occupation Tax on cost price if they are registered de minimis servicemen; or, (4) Use Tax on cost price if the servicemen are de minimis and are not otherwise required to be registered under Section 2a of the Retailers' Occupation Tax Act.

Generally, special order printers calculate their tax base utilizing either the third or fourth method. The third way servicemen may account for their tax liability only applies to de minimis servicemen who have either chosen to be registered or are required to be registered because they incur Retailers' Occupation Tax liability with respect to a portion of their business. Servicemen may qualify as de minimis if they determine that their annual aggregate cost price of tangible personal property transferred incident to sales of service is less than 35% of their annual gross receipts from service transactions (75% in the case of pharmacists and persons engaged in graphic arts production). See, 86 Ill. Adm. Code 140.101(f) enclosed. This class of registered de minimis servicemen is authorized to pay Service Occupation Tax (which includes local taxes) based upon the cost price of tangible personal property transferred incident to sales of service. Servicemen that incur Service Occupation Tax collect the Service Use Tax from their customers. They remit the tax to the Department by filing returns and do not pay tax to suppliers. They provide suppliers with Certificates of Resale for the property transferred to service customers.

The final method of determining tax liability may be used by de minimis servicemen that are not otherwise required to be registered under Section 2a of the Retailers' Occupation Tax Act. Servicemen may qualify as de minimis if they determine that their annual aggregate cost price of tangible personal property transferred incident to sales of service is less than 35% of their annual gross receipts from service transactions (75% in the case of pharmacists and persons engaged in graphic arts production). Such de minimis servicemen may pay Use Tax to their suppliers or may self-assess and remit Use Tax to the Department when making purchases from unregistered out-of-State suppliers. Those servicemen are not authorized to collect "tax" from their service customers because they, not their customers, incur the tax liability. Those servicemen are also not liable for Service Occupation Tax. It should be noted that servicemen no longer have the option of determining whether they are de minimis using a transaction by transaction basis.

Please note that if the servicemen's use of the tangible personal property occurs outside the state of Illinois, out-of-state servicemen who are de minimis and unregistered incur no Use Tax. These servicemen are also not liable for Service Occupation Tax, and, as indicated earlier, their service customers incur no tax liability.

I hope this information is helpful. The Department of Revenue maintains a website, which can be accessed at www.revenue.state.il.us. If you have further questions related to the Illinois sales tax laws, please contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336.

If you are not under audit and you wish to obtain a binding Private Letter Ruling regarding your factual situation, please submit all of the information set out in items 1 through 8 of Section 1200.110(b).

Very truly yours,

Melanie A. Jarvis
